SUMITON CHRISTIAN YOUTH ATHLETICS CODE OF CONDUCT

We expect all persons who choose to participate in a Sumiton Christian Youth Athletics (SCYA) event to exemplify a Christ like behavior and to comply with Biblical Standards {1 Peter 2:13-15}. Failure to adhere to any of the following policies will be grounds for disciplinary action, suspension and/or dismissal:

1. All persons must honor and respect God the Father, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, and God's Holy Word. {Matthew 22:37-38}.
2. All players must follow all guidelines and regulations established within each team. Disruptive behavior is not permissible.
3. Rebellion, disobedience, and disrespect [i.e. talking back or arguing with a coach or game official directly or indirectly] will not be tolerated. {1 Samuel 15:23, Hebrews 13:17}
4. All persons must respect church and school property and equipment. defacing or destruction of any property, walls, equipment, or furnishings will result in disciplinary action, as well as reimbursement for any damage caused. {Matthew 25:14- 30; Luke 43-48}.
5. No player is permitted to leave practice without permission. All players must be under coaches or parent's supervision at all times.
6. Stealing, cheating, use of obscene language, possession of obscene literature, and conduct that violates Christian principles in any way, will not be tolerated and may be grounds for suspension and/or dismissal. {Exodus 20: 1-17; James 3: 10-11; Matthew 6; 22-23}.
7. Smoking or possession of cigarettes, prescription or non-prescription drugs, or alcoholic beverages of any kind is positively prohibited on church or school grounds. Any player failing to comply with this standard will be automatically dismissed. For the sake of personal and school testimony, total abstinence and absence {use or possession} from tobacco, alcoholic beverages, and illegal drugs is expected of all players at all times, twenty-four [24] per day, seven [7] days a week. Any player failing to comply with this standard will be automatically dismissed. {1 Corinthians 6:19-20}. Absolutely no medication is allowed in a player's possession. Medication must be checked in with game officials and will be administered by that person.
8. Players may not bring weapons of any kind [including pocket knives] to a practice or games.
9. Above all, in order to maintain a loving atmosphere and environment, all players are expected to exemplify a Christ-like character in cultivating good social relationships. Behavior such as name calling, ridiculing others, tale bearing, lying, etc. will not be tolerated.

Discipline is necessary for the player as well as the whole team. It is impossible for learning to take place on a team unless good order is maintained. Therefore, each coach is given the liberty of making and enforcing team regulations in the manner he or she feels in accordance with Christian principles and discipline as set forth in the scriptures of The Holy Bible. SCYA expects full cooperation from both players and parents. All player or parent complaints will be expected to be taken through the proper chain of authority in a respectful manner.

ALL PARENTS MUST READ: All youth athletic governing bodies have imposed conduct fines and penalties. Conduct which leads to ejection shall be reported to our governing body AHSSA. If fines are imposed, SCYA will not and can not pay out these fines, so you as the parent or guardian of the player or cheerleader will be responsible.

BY ALLOWING YOUR CHILD TO PARTICIPATE you are AGREEING TO THESE TERMS
